Narrative

The following responses are from a variety of participants; administrators, community members, consumers, family members, peer support specialists and professionals.

Overall, the presenters received positive feedback from participants. Some of the respondents stated that the entire training was great and helpful when asked what information was most helpful. Others responded that the most helpful part of the training was: self reflection presentation for the therapist; hearing the law officer speak about ways to stay safe in the field.

Information cited as being the least helpful included: engaging with families.

Participants indicated they would use the information to: work safely in the community; apply several aspects in supervision with my staff as well as community safety when engaging community based treatment sessions; use the 5 big ideas to take away from therapy and provide the family with a certificate of completion.
